

New Agenda Kleka Camp Fire Girls Presented With Awards

A new calendar was set up by the Ladies Auxiliary of Torrance Barracks, 1910 World War I veterans at a meeting July 2. It was voted to hold business meetings on the first Monday of each month and a social meeting on the third Monday of the month.

The next meeting is scheduled for July 16 when a pot luck supper at 6 p.m. will be followed by entertainment.

All meetings are held in the American Legion Hall, 1109 Border Ave., Torrance.

Wives, widows, mothers, daughters and sisters of World War I veterans are eligible for membership in the Auxiliary. For information call Mrs. Vesta Littrell.

Kleka Camp Fire Girls of Torrance held a bead ceremony and barbecue at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Boyko, assistant guardians, 16702 Cerise Ave.

In addition to the honor beads which the girls had earned, Mrs. Gerald E. Salisbury presented rings symbolic of having passed the rank of Wood Gatherer's, three year membership awards, national swim awards, and money bags for candy sales.

Special recognition was given to Karen Miller and Linda Salisbury, who won a free fun day at Disneyland for selling 16 cartons of candy.

Other members of the group are Janice Johnson, Elli Cowdray, and Dallas Boyko. The leaders were presented with Camp Fire pen and pencil sets from the girls.

Following the ceremony, the girls helped prepare and serve a barbecue dinner.

Final outing of the year was a boat trip to Catalina June 24, which included tours of the Bird Farm, Terrace Bus Ride, Seal Rocks Trip, and Undersea Gardens. Highlighting their day at Catalina was the return trip by seaplane.

The day was climaxed by a surprise birthday party given by the girls for Elli Cowdray, hosted by Mrs. P. Cowdray, 3426 172nd. Earlier in the day Elli was invited to participate with Kappy the Clown aboard the Santa Catalina in honor of her birthday.

The group next fall will be combined with Puk Toleta under the leadership of Mrs. P. Schossow and Mrs. A. Miller as assistant.

Otis Smith, Mary White Wed in Arizona June 15

The Church of Christ in Coolidge, Ariz., was the setting on June 15 for the 8 o'clock nuptials uniting Miss Mary Anne White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W.

White of Coolidge and Otis Weldon Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis W. Smith, 1420 Elm Ave., Torrance.

John White of Abilene, Texas, escorted the bride to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a floor length wedding gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta detailed with a scalloped neckline, cap sleeves and a bouffant skirt. Her nylon veil fell from a pearl tiara and she carried pink carnations.

Mrs. Glenn Wright of Los Angeles was the matron of honor and Miss Ruth Ellen Shrock was the bridesmaid. She wore blue lace over taffeta and carried white carnations. Julie Ruth White was the flower girl. The rings were carried by Steve Smith.

Frank Smith of San Diego was best man and ushers were Neil White and Jim Parmley. Candles were lighted by Kenny Sanders and Bob Nowlin.

June and Dale Wood were soloists.

Evangelist Arthur W. White officiated at the marriage ceremony.

A reception followed at the church. Serving were Mrs. Bill Jennings and Mrs. Glyn Hanks.

The couple spent a honeymoon at Yosemite and the Grand Canyon. The bride was graduated from Coolidge High school and attended Pepperdine College and the Lamson Business College in Phoenix.

Her husband was graduated from Torrance High school and attended El Camino College. He is employed by the Public Service Co. for the city of Los Angeles.
